This home has benefited from a complete schedule of renovation and remedial works throughout all completed in the last 12 months.

On entry to the property the large hallway invites you into the open plan lounge and dining room. The large bay overlooking the front elevation bathing the space with an abundance of natural light accented by the tall sash effect window overlooking the rear courtyard. Completed with grey effect laminate flooring and white wall covering in keeping with modern style and trends. This theme is echoed throughout every room.

The kitchen is generously sized with a wealth of base and wall units over all four wall with built in and free standing appliances. This space is completed with dual aspect windows and external access to the courtyard.

Upstairs the family bathroom is a generous sized containing a white three piece suite full size family bath with overhead shower, low level wc and hand basin. Leading on to the bedroom two overlooking the rear court yard and the master bedroom which covers the full width of the home.

This is a fantastic Investment only opportunity and will not be around for long!!! Make ours your next call
